Journal of

Applied Finance & Banking

The Journal

Journal of Applied Finance and Banking publishes high-quality refereed empirical research on all aspects of banking and finance. The Journal's emphasis is on empirical, applied, and policy-oriented research in banking and other domestic and international financial institutions and markets. The Journal's purpose is to improve communications between the academic and other research communities and policymakers and operational decision makers at financial institutions (private and public) national and international, and their regulators.
